(decided on: 05/25/2017)

Text

From line 14 to 15:

At the same time, we can see emerging alternatives: some ~~peasants~~farmers are reinventing our agriculture through agroecology, a new generation of ~~peasants~~farmers is

From line 42 to 43:

- an agriculture which doesn't try to export its production at all costs and defends the ~~principles~~principles of food sovereignty worldwide.

Delete from line 45 to 47:

In order to make this new agricultural model a reality, some measures are needed at the global, European, national and local levels.

In line 50:

- the reintroduction of market regulation and ~~productions~~productions regulation

Reason

“Peasant” is a pejorative term in English, we do not want to offend anybody in the agricultural world.
