

Ä1 to P1: Activity Plan 2021 - 2022

Proposers

Grön Ungdom

Plan text

Insert in line 41:

A democratic, anti-racist and inclusive Europe

From line 48 to 50:

protests or decision making. We also see that most political decisions are taken by old, white, straight, cis and non[Space]-disabled men. FYEG dreams of an anti-racist, anti-facist society that is truly representative. Therefore FYEG is

From line 68 to 72:

communications. This means looking with a critical eye at our work, and learning where we can do better. We recognise that smashing the patriarchy means ~~to dismantle~~ dismantling the structures that affect people in different ways and rebuilding the system with everyone in mind. Feminism means ~~to reexamine~~ reexamining power and how in a patriarchy having power means at the cost of someone else, usually marginalised

From line 77 to 79:

In the times of COVID-19, we've had to reimagine how we approach educational events. On one side we've come to value even more the possibility ~~to organise~~ of organising live activities where we bring Young Greens together for knowledge exchange,

Insert from line 110 to 112:

share their first-hand expertise in topics central to the resilience of our movement, such as the mental health of activists, the building and maintenance of organisational culture and democratic methods of facilitation and participation.

From line 120 to 126:

In past years, FYEG's educational work has focused on young people's poor access to social rights as well as youth influence on democratic and inclusive processes. In 2022, we will organise a series of activities to explore what ~~are~~ the mental health challenges deriving from these issues are.

FYEG Member Organisations acknowledge mental health as an important barrier to their members' engagement and have expressed their interest in exploring, learning and exchanging best practices to face this issue. Moreover, poor mental health social rights - the right to decent work (the right to work, and the right to adequate social protection ~~—~~and support them in becoming agents of change in their local communities through human rights education.

Delete from line 142 to 144:

Delete from line 169 to 170:

FYEG is nothing without its member organisations. The MOs constitutes the base on which FYEG operates as a federation, and it is through our MOs that we have

From line 180 to 182:

In the coming year, FYEG will continue to make the MO work more strategic, by building on the MO strategy that has been drafted ing throughout the ~~last~~ year, and have a more individual approach towards MOs, building on individual MO

From line 189 to 193:

staff, especially those in finance and human resource roles. Instead of organising a 2-day in-~~real life-person~~ MO Training, we will organise online training, either individualised for the MO's needs or general. We hope to increase our MOs capacities especially but not only in fundraising and communications. Where possible, we will bring experts on these areas in to provide the training.

From line 200 to 201:

Finally, ~~FYEG~~FYEG's Executive Committee will continue to provide MOs with transparent information about their work, what's happening externally and internally in the current progress to be forgotten, not now nor in the future. As part of this shift, FYEG commits to anti-oppression strategies, trainings and structures. The FYEG EC and Office will continue to work with the AC, Awareness Team, and

Insert from line 256 to 258:

From line 299 to 301:

2020 and 2021 took place online. However, this also enabled us to understand where we ~~fall~~fell short and can improve. In 2021 and 2022, together with the support of the organisational change consultancy, we would like to build frameworks for

In line 330:

4.7. And ~~it~~its working groups

Reason

Grammar