Political Platform text

From line 314 to 320:

FYEG stands for cultural rights. The colonial, discriminatory and assimilationist policies in European countries have left ethnic and national minorities heavily marginalised and vulnerable. We defend the right of individuals and communities, including ethnic and national minorities, to practise and preserve their cultures, including their languages, religions, art forms, and ways of life. ~~National~~Ethnic and national minorities must have strong legal protection, sufficient and stable funding and cultural autonomy in support of their efforts to revitalise, retain

Reason

To be inclusive minority groups that do not consider themselves as a nation, but just ethnic groups within the nation or there is no consensus about that within the group (eg. Kashubians in Poland).
