Political Platform text

From line 1064 to 1066:

call for the economy to be structured differently. Companies that are considered too big to fail (see Glossary 164) or hold monopolies[Space], cartels and oligopolies must be split up. Antitrust laws should be effectively enforced to companies with substantial market power. Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) should have more opportunities to run their

Reason

Cartels and oligopolies have similar effects as monopolies. We also would like to offer a concrete action against this phenomenon.
