Title: PP1 AA7: Political Platform

Political Platform text

From line 1684 to 1689:

Human beings, not state security, must be at the heart of all security efforts. When it comes to conflict response, humanitarian action, sanctions and ~~dialogue~~the support of weapons to the attacked country must be prioritised over militarised intervention~~.~~ ~~Imposing sanctions has precedent over militarized intervention as well, yet sanctions must be targeted and do no harm to the overall population~~. Within international organisations dealing ~~with~~ with security, the EU must actively fight for solutions built on the principles of

From line 1691 to 1693:

requirement to impose international economic sanctions. However, we recognise that in certain situations ~~dialogue is~~such measures are not enough. When genocide or other horrific human rights abuses are occuring, or unprovoked crimes of aggression

Reason

Alternative Amendment to PP1 A7. distinguishing between so called defensive and offensive weapons makes no sense, because it is down to who is using them.
