R2 A2: Towards an agroecological Europe by 2030

Proposers Jong Groen

Motion text

Insert from line 94 to 96:

- at the finest territorial level. A redesign of the Common Agriculture Policy is needed in order to halt the disproportionally advantageous treatment of large agricultural companies and to put small and medium organic and agroecological practices at the centre of public support, to ensure just

Reason

We want to explicitly demand a shift of subsidies from big agricultural companies with their monocultures to smaller agroecological farmers.