R17 A2: A full reset of relations with China

Proposers Jong Groen; DWARS, GroenLinkse Jongeren

Motion text

From line 79 to 80:

~~The EU~~Europe needs to re-evaluate its ties with China. We need a full reset of EU-China relations – deviating from a focus of maximalising economic gain to

From line 85 to 86:

against humanity and genocide of the Uyghurs, calls on the European Union and the governments of ~~Member States~~European countries:

Delete from line 97 to 98:

3. To implement Europe~~an~~-wide trade sanctions on products originating from the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region or associated with the forced labour

From line 100 to 103:

4. To implement Europe~~an~~-wide diplomatic sanctions on PRC officials of the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region, and eventually of Xi Jinping.

With regards to the neo-imperialism of the PRC, calls on the European Union and the governments of ~~Member States~~Euopean countries:

From line 121 to 122:

With regards to the isolation of the Republic of China, calls on the European Union and the governments of ~~Member States~~European countrise:

From line 129 to 131:

3. To further enhance engagement and broaden partnerships with Taiwan, including a reset of ~~Member States'~~the European countries' One China Policy and the broadening of the scope of interaction with Taiwan beyond purely economic engagement

From line 137 to 139:

5.

1. By recognising the official diplomatic missions of Taiwan with the EU and with the various ~~Member States~~European countries no longer as representative offices serving as de facto embassies, but as de jure embassies and

From line 141 to 142:

5. 2. And by doing the same for the representative offices of the EU and of the various ~~member states~~European countries in Taiwan.

Reason

Along with minor corrections, we aim for more inclusivity among countries who share the same sentiment but might be excluded from this resolution. We need to have a more united stance against Chinese authoritarianism and a full reset of relations.