R15 A2: Decolonising Europe starts with us: Breaking the chains of colonialism within the Green movement

Proposers FYEG

Motion text

From line 109 to 110:

~~Therefore, the Racial Justice Task Force demands that FYEG and its Member Organisations:~~

Therefore, we, the Federation of Young European Greens and Young Green political organisations of Europe commit to:

From line 117 to 122:

- Incorporate and emphasise racial justice, inclusion, representation, and a broader decolonial framework of thinking in setting up ~~their~~our campaigns for EU24;
- Actively encourage bold, young greens of colour to run for the European Parliament via ~~their~~our respective mother parties, and to provide sufficient support and mentorship to do so and to be placed in electable positions;

From line 124 to 125:

- Take steps to assess the practices, policies, and cultures of ~~their~~our internal organisation and on how this excludes or fosters an atmosphere of

From line 127 to 136:

- Work more actively to make ~~their~~our organisations more inclusive, for example by working on meaningful diversity and inclusion plans that address the lack of young greens of colour in ~~their~~our respective organisations.

~~We demand that FYEG:~~

We, the Federation of Young European Greens, further commit to:

- Ensur~~es~~ing diverse representation of young greens of colour in the Young Candidates Platform, to the extent possible.
- Especially consider~~s~~ing the disparities and barriers to accessibility faced by young greens of colour in politics, and, where necessary and possible, to ensur~~e~~ing the Young Candidates Platform considers these intersectionalities in the support and trainings it provides young

Insert from line 139 to 140:

- This be the first of one of many future steps to expand FYEG's and our Member Organisations' work on decoloniality, interculturality, racial justice, representation, and

Insert from line 145 to 146:

- All components of FYEG, politically, within our internal organisation, and through our Member Organisations, aim to place decoloniality, interculturality, and racial justice at the very heart of our collective movement.

Reason
Reframing demands as 'us' instead of 'them'.
