R5 A6: Speak Up, Speak Out: Protecting the Right to Protest

Proposers Joves Ecosocialistes

Motion text

Insert after line 66:

- Limit the the discretionary use of mass surveillance tactics, such as phone tracking or spying. Regulate this practices through the creation of a public list of circumstances in which surveillance tactics are to become an issue open to public and media screening in line with Human Rights, with special attention to the fundamental right to civil disobedience, organisational freedom, and privacy.

Reason

These tactics are badly used by some governments (see the example of massive political and activist spying in Catalonia with the Pegasus scandal) and impose a “panoptic state” constraining the right to organize, protest and be dissident
