The Executive Committee has a right to propose the exclusion of a member organisation to the General Assembly. The exclusion of a member is pronounced by the General Assembly by a two-thirds majority. As detailed in the Status, the exclusion of a member is only valid if the following conditions have been met:

the proposal for exclusion is explicitly indicated in the convocation of the General Assembly, the member in question was heard if they so wished, the assembly brings together at least two-thirds of the full members, whether they are present or represented.
