Motion text

From line 88 to 93:

~~The further escalation of this conflict outside of the borders of Israel and Palestine is of grave concern. Particular flashpoints have included Hezbollah's rocket attacks on Israel from Lebanon and Israel's bombing of Hezbollah in Lebanese territory (BBC, 2023) as well as Israel's bombing of the Iranian embassy in Syria and the attacks launched in retaliation against Israeli targets by Iran (Reuters, 2023).~~

The further escalation of this conflict outside of the borders of Israel and Palestine is of grave concern, stoking the fears of a wider regional conflict in the Middle East which historically have always led to the deprivation of Palestinians' lives, lands and livelihood.

Reason

There is no need to go into this much detail in a resolution; not all other actors and countries can be included, so we propose to focus on the risk of escalation in the regional in general.
