Delete after line 6:

Insert from line 116 to 118:

The development of renewable energy limits the dependence on fossil fuels and uranium from Russia and other authoritarian states. Divesting from nuclear energy in Europe means divesting from European dependence of Russian nuclear know-how and the production of elements of nuclear power plants, needed in order to build new and maintain current nuclear power plants. The end goal of FYEG energy policy is a decentralized and community-owned and operated renewable energy
