

I1 Internal Rules of Procedure

Proposer: FYEG
Agenda item: 8. Statutory Documents

Motion text

General Principles

FYEG will have minimal statutes that only contain what legally matters and they will be revised in case the Belgian law changes. All other matters will be taken care of in the IRPs.

The IRPs must never contradict the statutes, they can elaborate.

The IRPs shall be facilitating and helping with decision-making processes as well as the organisation of the federation. There shall be no more rules than necessary.

This document shall be accessible to every MO on the website.

All acts, invoices, publications, official letters and websites, in electronic form or not, emanating from the association must mention:

- its full or abbreviated name, immediately preceded or followed by "AISBL" or "international non-profit association",
- the precise indication of its registered office,
- its company number,
- the terms "register of legal persons" or the abbreviation "RPM" followed by the indication of the court of the registered office of the legal person,
- if applicable, their email address and website,
- the number of at least one account held by the association with a credit institution established in Belgium,

- if applicable, the indication that the association is in liquidation.

1. Member Organizations

1.1. Membership

1.1.1. Membership categories

The association is made up of member organisations only and has three categories of member organisations:

Full members

Candidate members

Associate members

1.1.2. Membership criteria

Membership criteria are detailed in the Statutes.

1.1.3. Conditions of admission of candidate members

Conditions of admission of candidate member organisations are detailed in the Statutes.

1.1.4. Conditions of admission of full members

Conditions of admission of full member organisations are detailed in the Statutes.

In addition, a candidate member organisation must apply for full membership latest at the General Assembly three years after it has received its candidate member organisation status. If the candidate member organisation does not apply for full membership in the third year of its candidacy, the Executive Committee can propose the suspension or exclusion of the candidate member organisation.

1.1.5. Conditions of admission of associate members

Conditions of admission of associate member organisations are detailed in the Statutes.

1.1.6. Resignation of members

Conditions for the resignation of members are detailed in the Statutes.

1.1.7. Suspension of members

Conditions for the suspension of members are detailed in the Statutes.

The Executive Committee has a right to propose the suspension of a member organisation to the General Assembly in the following cases (not limited to):

- no update or other contact is made between a member and the FYEG Executive Committee between two General Assemblies,
- the member organisation doesn't fulfil one or more of the membership criteria,
- the member organisation didn't pay their membership fee,
- major changes that happened in the member organisation, which need to be investigated by the EC.

The suspension of a member means that the organisation loses its voting rights.

When a member is suspended, the Executive Committee:

1. informs the member organisation about the suspension via an e-mail and explain the consequences

2. makes all reasonable efforts to enable the member to regain its full membership

3. creates a report on this process and presents it at the following General Assembly.

1.1.8. Exclusion of members

Conditions for the exclusion of members are detailed in the Statutes.

The exclusion of an MO means that this organisation is not listed as a member organisation anymore and hence loses all of its rights within FYEG. Following an exclusion, an organisation that wishes to rejoin FYEG is expected to follow the entire membership procedure, as a new organisation would.

The rejoining organisation is required to inform GA about changes that happened in their organisation since leaving FYEG and explanation of their decision about rejoining.

1.1.9. Suspension and exclusion in case of non-payment of membership fee

The suspension and exclusion of member organisation in case of non-payment of membership fee is further detailed in the Statutes.

1.1.10. Membership fee

FYEG has an annual membership fee. The ceiling is stated in the Statutes.

Each full member organisation shall pay an annual membership fee to FYEG. This membership fee shall correspond to 1 % of the total incomes of their previous year's realised budget with a minimum of 50 EUR for the EU and European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and Switzerland and the United Kingdom, and 25 EUR for all other European countries.

By way of derogation to the previous paragraph, the General Assembly may decide, in duly justified cases, to lower the amount of the membership fee that a Member Organisation shall pay, following a recommendation of the Executive Committee. Requests for lowering the Membership fee shall be sent by a Member Organisation to the Executive Committee at the latest 2 weeks before the GA.

Each full MO shall pay their membership fee for the running year on the first evening of the GA at the latest, if it has not already been transferred earlier.

Full MOs are requested to provide their annual budget statement for the previous year at the latest. A document listing the amount of the membership fee paid by each MO and the way it has been calculated must be annexed to the financial report of the year in question.

1.1.11. Membership reviews

The Executive Committee presents a review of the FYEG Member Organisations as part of the Executive Committee Report. The review can include the following information:

Overview of the region and its meetings and activities,

The Member Organisations' engagement with FYEG activities during the year,

Major changes to the Member Organisation.

In case of major changes (change of organisations' name, split in the organisation, merge with another organisation, change of political affiliation, etc.), the Executive Committee can propose the General Assembly to vote on that change. The General Assembly may, among other options, take note of the change or suspend the membership of the organisation to give sufficient time to the Executive Committee to look into the situation.

1.2. Working with Member Organisations

1.2.1. Member Organisation Duties

Each MO should keep FYEG updated about:

- changes in the board
- valid contact addresses for the MO list and the website
- activities

1.2.2. FYEG duties

FYEG will provide the Member Organisations with:

- information about statutory meetings
- minutes and reports from statutory meetings and long ECMs
- a newsletter containing information and participation possibilities in current activities
- regularly updated contacts of other Member Organisations

2. General Assembly

2.1. Composition

The General Assembly is the highest decision body. The General Assembly is composed of one or two delegates per full member organisation, candidate member organisation and associate member organisation.

MOs should strive to send delegations to GA that are gender-balanced and consist of delegates maximum aged 30 years old. If the organisation is unable to find delegates within the age limit, they can send older delegates aged 31-35.

The delegates can be asked to pay a participation fee for the General Assembly.

165 the GA votes for their immediate implementation through a second vote requiring 166 an absolute two-thirds majority. Persons elected by the General Assembly will 167 start their mandate from the first working day after the GA meeting where they 168 were elected, unless other rules apply for their mandate.

At the general assembly Full Member Organisations and the Executive Committee have the right to submit resolutions, and amendments to resolutions, the political platform, the activity and financial plan, the strategic plan, other plans tabled by the EC, the statutes and the IRPs, bearing in mind the deadlines specified under 2.4. Support of 3 Full Member Organizations is needed in order to table an emergency resolution.

2.6. Presidency

The General Assembly confirms the Presidency proposed by the Executive Committee before any other decisions are made.

The Presidency then:

- chairs the meetings and discussions at the General Assembly
- prepares the resolutions, amendments and voting procedures for the General Assembly
- is responsible for taking the minutes of the General Assembly

The Presidency:

- consists of four to six people who must not be candidates to any positions at the General Assembly.

- delegates of organisations applying for candidate membership in FYEG
- candidates for all open positions

- the second delegate of a full, candidate or associate Member Organisation if at least one delegate self-identifies as women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender.

3. Election and Voting Procedures

3.1. Attendance and voting quorums

In line with the Statutes, each Member Organisation has the right to attend the General Assembly. Only Full Member Organisations have voting rights and each Full Member Organisation has two votes.

3.1.1. Principles

In line with the Statutes, the General Assembly deliberates validly only if 50 % + 1 of the Full Member Organisations are present or represented. The Statutes detail the steps to follow in case the attendance quorum is not reached.

In line with the Statutes, in principle all decisions in FYEG are taken by a simple majority of votes registered for the General Assembly. When voting, abstention is always an option. When the vote relates to decisions concerning persons or Member Organisations, the ballot is always secret. The voting body can decide to have other voting procedures processed through secret ballot.

3.1.2. Procedures

Definitions

Votes registered at General Assembly - the number of Member Organisations and their delegates who are registered for the General Assembly and have voted in the determination of the General Assembly quorum

Votes cast - the number of votes that were submitted.

Simple majority

Majority of the votes cast, i.e. the number of “Yes” votes exceed the number of “No” votes.

Abstentions are not considered in the count.

302 Examples:

303 Out of 20 votes: 11 yes, 9 no, 0 abstentions: passed; 1 yes, 0 no, 19
304 abstentions: passed.

305 10 yes; 10 no; 0 abstentions. not passed. 10 yes, 9 no, 1 abstention: passed.

306 Absolute majority

307 To pass "yes" should reach the majority (half+1, or half + 0.5 in case of odd 308 number) of the number of votes registered at the General Assembly.

309 Note that it is number of votes registered, not number of votes cast. This means 310 that if less than half of the voters are present and vote, this majority can 311 never be reached.

312 Examples:

313 20 voters registered: need 11 or more yes votes.

314 21 voters registered: need 11 or more yes votes.

315 22 voters registered: need 12 or more yes votes.

316 Simple two-thirds majority

317 Two thirds of the votes cast.

318 Absolute two-thirds majority

319 Two thirds of the number of votes registered.

320 Note that it is the number of votes registered, not the number of votes cast.
321 This means that if less than two thirds of the voters are present and vote this 322 majority can never be reached.

323 Examples:

324 20 voters: need 14 yes or more votes.

325 21 voters registered: need 14 or more yes votes.

22 voters registered: need 15 or more yes votes.

3.2. Election of candidates

3.2.1. Principles

FYEG uses a Single Transferable Vote (STV) electoral system with a standard droop quota. Mathematically, this is the next integer larger than  $V / (n+1)$  when  $V$  = the total number of valid votes and  $n$  is the number of positions available. Specifically recommended is the Scottish STV system.

3.2.2. Procedures

The main principle is to rank all the candidates according to the voter's preferences for each candidate. Where 1 is the first preference 2 the second preference and so on. Voters can rank all candidates even if the number of candidates exceeds the number of positions. Voters can decide to not rank some of the candidates even if this means leaving the ballot partially blank.

Only a completely blank ballot counts as abstention, an abstention counts under the exception below.

If a simple majority of all ballots cast do not rank the candidate with any numbers they are excluded from the election.

0 - All ballots are inspected to determine that candidates have received a simple majority of any kind of ranking on cast ballots. If not, they will be excluded from the election.

1 – The candidates who have reached the election quota (i.e. election threshold) are elected.

2 – If some positions are still available, the following process starts:

2a – The left-over votes on candidates reaching the election threshold are redistributed according to second preferences, using the Single Transferable Vote system of distribution.

2b – If one or more candidates have reached the election threshold, that/those candidate(s) are elected in order from highest to lowest vote count. The process then starts again from point (2).

2c – If no candidate reaches the threshold in this way, the candidate with the lowest amount of votes is removed from the election. The ballot-papers that ranked this candidate as their first remaining preference are redistributed according to their second preference. The process is then restarted (1).

2d - If, following the calculation of the election result, one or more candidates is elected who is ineligible due to quota regulations, these candidates (who had the least number of votes) are removed from the pool of candidates and the entire election is recalculated. That is to say, the election is recalculated, and each time the ineligible candidate would have received a preference vote, the vote instead goes to the voter's next preference.

3.2.3. Exceptions

At the General Assembly:

Concerning the Executive Committee elections:

The spokespersons and the treasurer are elected separately from the rest of the Executive Committee positions.

Concerning the Advisory Committee:

The newly elected Executive Committee will present the proposed Advisory Committee to the General Assembly. The General Assembly ratifies the proposed Advisory Committee by a simple majority vote.

Between General Assemblies:

Concerning the replacement of a resigned Executive Committee member:

If an Executive Committee member resigns, a new Executive Committee member can be elected to replace them.

The Executive Committee will publishes a call for candidates for the vacant position. Candidates will be elected via an electronic vote.

Any replaced EC member will have full voting rights in the Executive Committee.

3.3. Electronic voting

The Executive Committee can call for an electronic vote between General Assemblies in urgent matters. It is the duty of the Executive Committee to provide enough information for the full Member Organisations to make an informed decision.

Each full Member Organisation has 2 votes. When voting, abstention is always an option.

The voting period is set to two weeks with a one week reminder.

The Statutes, the Internal Rules and Procedures, the Strategic Plan and the Political Platform cannot be subject to any electronic vote between the General Assemblies.

Results will be announced within one week after the closing of the vote and include detailed information.

3.4. Tiebreakers

3.4.1. Tiebreakers on point of substance

In the case of a tie between two points of substance, the vote shall be held again. If the result is once again a tie, the body voting may choose to vote once more, table the discussion to later in the meeting, or decide by some form of chance. Note that this paragraph is not intended to apply to ties between “yes”, “no”, or “abstain” where some point of substance requires a majority to pass.

3.4.2. Tiebreakers relating to elections

If the tie occurs between two candidates in an election, and only one may be elected, a vote shall be held to decide between them. If the result is once again a tie, the body voting may choose to vote once more or decide by some form of chance. At any point during this, either candidate may choose to withdraw.

3.5. Dismissal of elected persons

3.5.1. Dismissal of Executive Committee member

Two thirds of the Executive Committee can propose dismissal of an Executive Committee member.

The Full Member Organisations vote on the proposed resignation through electronic vote.

The vote is based on two letters: a letter of justification from the majority of Executive Committee members proposing the dismissal and an optional letter of defence from the Executive Committee member.

If at least one third of the full MOs participate in the vote and a two third majority is reached the Executive Committee member is dismissed.

3.5.2. Dismissal of Secretary-General

Two thirds of the Executive Committee can propose the dismissal of the Secretary-General. An additional General Assembly must then be convened by a decision of the Administrative Board under the applicable rules (as set out in the statutes), where the Member Organisations vote on both the dismissal of the existing Secretary-General, and the election and appointment to the Administrative Board of a new interim Secretary-General. The Executive Committee has the right to in writing and orally inform the Member Organisations as to why they have proposed the dismissal, and the Secretary-General the right to defend themselves.

If quorum is reached (as detailed in the Statutes) and a simple two-thirds majority is found at the additional General Assembly for dismissing the Secretary-General, the Secretary-General is dismissed. The Executive Committee can propose dismissal of the Secretary General, with two-thirds of the votes of the members of the EC. The Member Organisations must be notified within 8 days about the decision and the Executive Committee must appoint a Secretary-General ad interim within 8 weeks after the decision of the Executive Committee. The Secretary General ad interim will continue until the election of a new Secretary General at the subsequent General Assembly. The new interim Secretary-General will take over the mandate over the former Secretary-General, expiring whenever the former Secretary-General's mandate would have expired. They have all the powers and responsibilities of the former Secretary-General.

3.6. Gender quota

In all elected bodies there must be a minimum of 50% of people that self-identify as women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender.

If there is only one position in a body, there is no quota. However it is encouraged that people that self-identify as women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender alternate in this position.

4. Bodies

4.1. Administrative Board

In line with the Statutes, the association is administered by an administrative board composed of three people, appointed by the general assembly amongst the Secretary-General, and members of the Executive Committee, preferably the Spokespeople and the Treasurer.

4.2. Executive Committee

The Executive Committee members are responsible for making strategic and political decisions about the organisation during their mandate and between General Assemblies.

The Executive Committee strives to reach consensus, with any member able to call a vote if consensus cannot be reached; decisions are made by a simple majority, disregarding abstentions. If no majority is secured after two consecutive votes, the decision is postponed to the next meeting for further attempts to reach a consensus. If voting fails again in the subsequent meeting, the decision is deemed against.

The Executive Committee is composed of eight people:

This defined scope is outlined by the Executive Committee responsible for the working group and working group coordinators at the start of the mandate to complement FYEG's priorities. The creation of a working group may be planned in the annual activity plan adopted by the General Assembly but the Executive Committee may also decide to create ad-hoc working groups.

Working groups must not work against the political platform of FYEG. Further details on how to form, manage and communicate Working Groups is detailed in the Annex - 2 Working Groups Guidelines.

4.9. Ecosprinter Editorial Board

The Ecosprinter is the Member Organisations magazine of FYEG and is created by an autonomous editorial board, elected at the General Assembly. The Ecosprinter is published online and FYEG should strive for a printed version.

The mission of the Ecosprinter is to:

- provide a forum for commentary and internal debate

- provide the spaces for blogs and articles of members of FYEG

- inform about European Green policies and politics

- report and comment about culture, politics and discussions they believe are of importance.

The Ecosprinter Editorial Board:

- consist of three members

- has to be gender-balanced

- can elect an Editor-in-Chief among its members

- work on the mission and development of the Ecosprinter

In case there is not a consensus within the Ecosprinter Editorial Board on the election of the Editor-in-Chief, or an absolute majority, the Executive Committee can appoint the Editor-in-Chief. The role of the editor in chief is to coordinate the work of the Ecosprinter Editorial Board and ensure that the mission of the Ecosprinter is fulfilled.

4.10. Conflict of Interest

In case a decision needs to be taken and a member of an FYEG body has a conflict of interest, financial or moral, they must inform the other members of the body before the decision is taken and the following procedure applies:

- the nature of the conflict of interest must appear in the minutes of the meeting,

- the person with a conflict of interest may not participate in the debate and the vote related to the decision in question.

- except for the Executive Committee itself, the body in question is allowed to delegate this decision to the Executive Committee,

- when the decision is delegated to a second body, the first body may still execute the decision.

If someone neglects to disclose a conflict of interest, any other member who is aware of the conflict must inform the rest of the members before the debate and decision takes place. Without the member concerned by the conflict of interest present, the body decides by a vote whether or not this member can participate in the debate and the vote. This decision must be mentioned in the minutes of the meeting. The body is allowed to delegate this decision.

In case the majority of members present or represented are in a position of conflict of interest, the decision must be delegated to the Executive Committee.

In case the majority of members of the Executive Committee are in a position of conflict of interest, the decision must be delegated to the General Assembly.

This chapter does not apply when the decision in question relates to usual transactions, entered into under normal market conditions and guarantees for transactions of the same nature.

the participant attended at least 75% of the meeting

all relevant receipts and proof of travel have been handed in within the deadline communicated for each activity

Exceptions to these rules regarding participants can only be made in consultation with the Treasurer.

7.1.1. Reimbursement practicalities

Train and other public transport travel costs are reimbursed on the basis of a 2nd class ticket or a 1st class if that option is cheaper.

For night trips over 500 km the couchette fee (2nd class) can be covered

Bike trips over 10 km are reimbursed by 1 EUR / km with a maximum of the price of a second class train ticket and with an absolute maximum of 100 EUR

Direct flights as well as combinations of direct flights with ground transportation are to be preferred over multistop flights due to the increased emissions from multiple starts and landings. Due to the high levels of emissions, plane-travel in general should be avoided as much as possible.

Taxi costs will be reimbursed if local transport is not available and if requested in advance from the organisers.

The necessity of using a private car must be justified in writing and approved in advance. Travel by car may be reimbursed by 0.2 EUR/km. Depending on the activity, specific reimbursement rules may apply.

Car sharing should be approved in advance and should be cheaper than public transportation. The costs have to be documented.

FYEG uses the official conversion rates of the European Commission for currencies other than Euro:
ec.europa.eu/budget/contracts\_grants/info\_contracts/inforeuro/inforeuro\_en.cfm based on the date of expense if no other donor guidelines apply. Exceptions are payments with credit cards when the documented conversion rates of the credit card company apply based on credit card payments statements.

7.2. Participation fees

A participation fee to any activity can be demanded and fixed by the Executive Committee, in line with the delegation order.

7.3. Expenses covered

7.3.1. Food and food supplies

Food reimbursement for other volunteers are fixed by the participating conditions for each event and meeting.

FYEG can only cover costs for vegetarian and vegan food. At every event, vegan food should be offered and its consumption encouraged.

7.3.2. Child care

If requested and possible child care will be provided for the Secretary-General, FYEG Office, Executive Committee members, speakers and Prep Team members in order to allow full presence at an event. The child care support can take the form of: covering the travel and accommodation costs for an extra person to provide child care on the spot during the event, covering the fee for a child care professional during the event etc. All the costs should be approved by the Treasurer.

The members of FYEG Executive Committee are entitled to a monthly allowance up to a maximum of 135 EUR per month. The FYEG EC members are free to claim the allowance depending on their need.

828 the limit of 1 day before and 1 day after the event/meeting.

Meeting rules to the General Assembly

These meeting rules regulate the formal sessions of the General Assembly. The goal of these meeting rules is to make sure that all participants have an as similar understanding of the formalities of the General Assembly as possible.

Presidency

The General Assembly is presided over by the Presidency. The Presidency consists of four to six people, who must not be candidates to any positions at the General Assembly. In line with the Internal Rules and Procedures, the Presidency is selected by the Executive Committee by an open-call. The General Assembly confirms the Presidency proposed by the Executive Committee before any other 944 decisions are made.

945 The Presidency should elect a chair among themselves. The Chair is the main 946 point of contact for the Executive Committee and the Office during and after the 947 General Assembly.

948 The chair is responsible for making sure that the rest of the Presidency 949 delivers their tasks assigned to them and that all the documents related to the 950 General Assembly (adopted resolutions, minutes, votes and voting cards, and 951 other adopted documents) are finalised handed over the Office and the Executive 952 Committee in the following month after the General Assembly.

953 The Presidency:

- 954 • chairs the meetings and discussions at the General Assembly
- 955 • prepares the resolutions, amendments and voting procedures for the General
956 Assembly
- 957 • is responsible for taking the minutes of the General Assembly
- 958 • decides who speaks, who takes part in discussion and who can also be 959 suspended from discussions.
- 960 • Can call emergency sessions to the agenda. However this change would need 961 confirmation by a simple two-thirds majority of the full members.

962 Agenda:

963 The agenda of the General Assembly is adopted with a simple majority on the 964 first day of the General Assembly.

965 In line with the Statutes, if the member organisations want to add a point to 966 the General Assembly agenda, they should communicate it to the Executive 967 Committee at least 10 days in advance and their proposal must be signed by one-968 twentieth of the full members.

969 The agenda can only be changed with a simple two-thirds majority of the full

970 members. Proposed changes to the agenda have to be presented in written form to 971 the presidency.

972 Documents that are noted, amended, approved, disapproved at the General
973 Assembly:

974 The power and the role of the General Assembly is detailed in the Internal Rules
975 and Procedures.

976 The Executive Committee, the Secretary General, the Ecosprinter Editorial Board,
977 the Financial Control and Advisory Committee and the Advisory Committee presents
978 their reports for the previous years. These reports are heard by the GA, not 979 voted.

980 The Treasurer presents the annual accounts and financial report of the previous 981 financial year and the budget and the financial plan of the upcoming year. These 982 documents can be amended and voted.

983 The Executive Committee presents the Activity Plan and the Strategy Plan (if 984 applicable) for the upcoming year(s). These documents can be amended and voted.

985 The deadlines for presenting and amending these documents are detailed in the 986 Internal Rules and Procedures.

987 The Presidency is responsible for organising Compromise Amendment Sessions (CAS)
988 to try and find compromises on amendments, so that documents have a higher 989 chance of being adopted.

990 Compromise Amendment Sessions (CAS):

991 The Compromise Amendment Sessions are called CAS in short. Everyone who has 992 speaking rights at the General Assembly can attend the compromise amendment 993 session, and it's advised that all member organisations with voting rights do 994 so.

995 Compromises are made between the member organisations or the body that proposed 996 the original document and the member organisations or the body that proposed the 997 amendment subject to compromise. It is advised to include other interested 998 Member Organisations in this compromise process so as to further broaden 999 consensus.

1000 Amendments to existing documents (Statutes, Internal Rules and Procedures, 1001 Political Platform) are only subjected to compromise if the compromise is in the

1002 scope of an already submitted amendments. The Presidency may declare a 1003 compromise amendment ineligible if its scope is different from the original 1004 amendment.

1005 During the Compromise Amendment Session, the proposer of the resolution presents
1006 their resolution. The proposer of the amendment presents their amendment. At 1007 this point other parties can declare their positions towards the amendment. The 1008 proposer of the resolution can adapt the amendments or seek a compromise. If a 1009 compromise is reached, it is shared with the delegates of the General Assembly.
1010 Unless a Full Member Organisation or the Executive Committee disputes the 1011 compromise, it is considered adopted. If the compromise is disputed, the 1012 compromise will be sought until the last day of the General Assembly.

1013 It is encouraged that the CAS sessions are organised in advance of the General
1014 Assembly, following the deadline for amendments which is one week before the 1015 General Assembly. The CAS session can happen online.

1016 In the voting, firstly the compromised amendments on the document as whole are 1017 voted. Afterwards, the document itself is voted on.

1018 Resolutions

1019 • Each resolution should have an international and/or European angle

1020 • Each resolution should be supported by at least one Member Organisation

1021 • A resolution should always have a call to action

1022 • A resolution should preferably be around 5,000 characters but definitely 1023 not more than 10,000

1024 The Executive Committee can recommend review of certain resolutions to the 1025 Presidency.

1026 The Presidency can suggest/demand the proposers of the resolution to withdraw
1027 their resolution or to postpone the resolution to the further General
1028 Assemblies.

1029 Speaking rights and debates:

1030 Speaking rights are open to all members of FYEG bodies, and all registered
1031 participants of the General Assembly.

1032 The presidency ultimately decides which individuals are given the opportunity to 1033 speak.

1034 The speaking time for debates is proposed by the presidency at the beginning of 1035 every debate based on the content of the debate and the time assigned for the 1036 current session in the agenda.

1037 The presidency can change the assigned speaking time based on the time left of 1038 the session to better fit the agenda, as they see fit. This might include 1039 cutting breaks.

1040 The General Assembly can overrule (with a simple two thirds majority) the 1041 presidency's proposals for speaking time. In such cases the new Agenda proposal
1042 must be submitted to the Presidency in a written form.

1043 During sessions where debates will take place, participants will be able to 1044 submit 'speaker cards' before the session. These cards will note if they are 1045 for/against, their Member Organisation and their gender.

1046 In view of the received speaker cards, the Presidency will define the speaker 1047 list. Speakers may still be taken from the floor for balance, but those who 1048 submit cards will be prioritised

1049 The presidency will ensure gender balance on the speaking list. This is done 1050 through a strict quotation of the list. Only as many men are allowed to speak as 1051 non-men are on the list. The only exception is if people are on the list who 1052 haven't participated in the debate up to that point. They will be chosen before 1053 persons that have already made plenty of contributions.

1054 The only exceptions to the speakers list are technical points. If someone has a 1055 technical point, they must signal the presidency and will be given the floor 1056 after the current speaker.

1057 Types of debate:

1058 Open debate: The debate is open to speakers willing to speak for or against the 1059 resolution or amendment being discussed, as well as for contributions that are 1060 neither opposed nor in favour. This debate is often used during the Compromise
1061 Amendment Sessions.

1062 Con-Pro: The debate is organised by an alternation of speakers against and for 1063 the resolution or amendment being discussed. This debate is often used during 1064 the Voting Session of the amendments that goes to vote and the resolutions.

1065 It should be noted that all the compromises should be reached before the voting 1066 session and the point of the con-pro debate is not to reach a compromise but to 1067 explain the positions. Therefore the presidency is encouraged to do only one 1068 round of con-pro debates, and if more than one rounds occur time is monitored by 1069 the presidency to ensure that overall the 'pro' and 'con' sides are both 1070 allocated equivalent speaking time.

1071 Quorum, voting and majorities:

1072 Quorum, voting rules and majorities are defined in the Internal Rules of 1073 Procedures.

1074 Voting rules and majorities are defined in the Internal Rules of Procedures

1075 A quorum check will be called before the voting sessions.

1076 Safer Spaces

1077 The General Assembly is a space where everybody feels safe, and has an equal
1078 opportunity to be heard. The Presidency is responsible for chairing the General
1079 Assembly in line with FYEG's Safer Spaces regulations. The presidency can ban a 1080 participant for misconduct for the remainder of a session.

1081 (Queer-)Feminist Council

1082 On a point of order, the women, intersex, nonbinary, trans and agender 1083 participants present and entitled to vote may decide whether they wish to hold a 1084 Feminist Council. The motion is dealt with with one pro and one con speech, with 1085 only those eligible to vote on the motion able to speak; the debate can be 1086 opened up beyond these two speeches. The Feminist Council then deliberates for 1087 up to one hour in the absence of the other participants and informs the entire 1088 body of the outcome after the end of the Feminist Council. The Feminist Council
1089 is considered part of the respective body. The organizers are responsible for a 1090 parallel programme dealing with a feminist policy topic for all those not 1091 participating in the Feminist Council.

1092 At the Feminist Council, women, intersex, nonbinary, trans and agender people
1093 can issue a Feminist vote. In the case of motions that affect the right of self- 1094 determination of women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender people in terms of 1095 form or content or that particularly affect women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or 1096 agender people, the Feminist Council has the opportunity to hold a separate vote
1097 among women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender people before the assembly

1098 vote. This Feminist vote is a strong and urgent recommendation to the assembly
1099 and shall be understood as such. The feminist vote is a non-binding
1100 recommendation.

1101 Annex 2: Working Group Guidelines

1102 These guidelines are to serve the Working Groups and the Working Group 1103 coordinators.

1104
1105 Working Group rights and responsibilities:

1106 Working group functions are detailed in the FYEG's Internal Rules of Procedures.
1107 FYEG Working Groups are based on direct democracy and the inclusion of all its 1108 members. Most of the Working Group meetings happen online, through the channels
1109 of internal communication available to them. Working Group members can have 1110 access to usage of the internal communication tools available to FYEG (such as 1111 online meeting softwares). As set out in the Internal Rules of Procedures, the 1112 EC is responsible for setting up a new Working Group and for ending the term of 1113 a Working Group.

1114 Working Groups can (and not only):

- 1115 • Support FYEG and its bodies in developing policy documents
- 1116 • Provide feedback to FYEG's internal policies and documents
- 1117 • Create campaigns
- 1118 • Create guidelines, templates, training material, and similar material

1119 All the Working Group activities must be in line with the FYEG Political 1120 Platform.

1121
1122 Only FYEG's Executive Committee (EC) has the mandate to speak on behalf of the 1123 organisation and engage in partnerships with other organisations. Therefore, any 1124 external communication or partnership request needs their approval.

1125 When the Working Group has a request for content to be shared via FYEG's
1126 official channels, firstly, it should be approved by the member of the Executive 1127 Committee responsible for the Working Group (hereinafter EC Responsible).

1128 Moreover, if the Working Group decides to engage in external partnerships, sign 1129 letters of external partners (i.e. organisations other than Green Political 1130 Organisations), etc. this must also be approved by the EC Responsible for the 1131 Working Group.

1132 Finally, if the Working Group needs support from the FYEG Office in matters of 1133 communication, administration, finances, etc. the Working Group should 1134 communicate a detailed concept, through the Working Group coordinator, to the EC
1135 Responsible in a timely manner.

1136 Executive Committee responsibilities:

1137 The EC Responsible is the person appointed among the EC members to be 1138 responsible for the Working Group.

1139 They are responsible for:

- 1140 • Initial setup of the Working Group: defining the aims, scope, timeframe,
1141 publishing a call for Working Group members and coordinators
- 1142 • Choosing the first members of the Working Group and the Working Group
1143 coordinators
- 1144 • Meeting with the coordinators to explain their roles and responsibilities
- 1145 • Attend meetings where needed/wanted to (optional) - but in general, it is 1146 more important to be aware what they are up to
- 1147 • Keeping track of all their activities and being aware of how the Working 1148 Group is progressing and what they are up to
- 1149 • Providing political advice and making sure the Working Group acts in line
1150 with FYEG's Political Platform
- 1151 • Updating the Working Group on FYEG activities related to their topics and

1152 purposes

1153 The EC responsible has the possibility to exclude someone from the Working Group 1154 on the recommendation of the coordinators or at least three members of the 1155 group. The EC has to be informed of the decision. The person has the possibility 1156 to appeal to the Advisory Committee.

1157 Working Group coordinator responsibilities

1158 A working group should have two coordinators, at least one of them self-1159 identifying as women, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender.

1160 If it is impossible to find two coordinators even after the EC responsible's 1161 best efforts to do so, an exemption can be made if approved by the FYEG EC. In 1162 this case, it is required that either the EC responsible or the Working Group
1163 coordinator self-identifies as female, intersex, nonbinary, trans or agender,

1164 Working Group coordinator tasks are as follows:

1165 • Set meetings and agendas for Working Group and notifying members of action
1166 points afterwards (online Working Group meetings should strive to be 1167 planned at least once every two weeks, excluding holidays and exceptional 1168 circumstances)

1169 • Set up the main communication channels

1170 • Main point of contact for EC Responsible

1171 • Keep the EC Responsible up to date on what's happening in the Working 1172 Group

1173 • Keep Working Group members informed and updated on EC's feedback and 1174 recommendations

1175 • Steer direction: set priorities, what themes/projects they work on,
1176 oversee the work

- Coordinate the creation of a Working Group activity plan, guided by the objectives and goals set out at the beginning
- Set up subgroups (if necessary or desired)
- They do not need to be involved in every single project or attend every meeting, but in their absence should delegate project or meeting moderation to someone else, and keep themselves updated on progress

Annex 3: Safer Spaces Policy

Safer spaces are evolving and not static. We have high expectations on how we behave towards each other in our meetings, actions and social spaces. Making a space safer means different things depending on the group of people involved as each group has different needs. This policy aims to be considered in every meeting involving FYEG, but the document should evolve as we learn and grow.

As an organisation we build social relationships inside and outside of meetings and actions. We commit to this Safer Spaces policy wherever we are together, this includes ensuring that ALL spaces are inclusive and harmless.

If someone violates these agreements a discussion or mediation process can happen, depending on the wishes of the person who was affected. If a serious violation happens to the extent that someone feels unsafe, they can be asked to leave the space and/or speak with one member of the Awareness Group. If necessary, the Sexual Harassment Protocol will be activated.

1. Respect! Racism, as well as ageism, GSRM-phobia, sexism, ableism or prejudice based on ethnicity, nationality, class, gender, gender presentation, language ability, asylum status or religious affiliation is unacceptable and will be challenged. FYEG has a zero-tolerance policy with any kind of discrimination, even though we acknowledge that there can be different levels in a breach of a safe space.

2. Be aware of your privileges! Including racial, class and gender privilege and/or less obvious or invisible hierarchies. Think about how your words, opinions and feelings are influenced and who they might exclude or harm.

3. Consent! Respect each other's physical and emotional boundaries, always get explicit verbal consent before touching someone or crossing boundaries. Don't 1208 assume your physical & emotional boundaries are the same as other people's.

1209 4. Friendly use of language! Be aware of the language you use in discussion and 1210 how you relate to others. Try to speak slowly and clearly and use uncomplicated 1211 language especially when non-natives speakers are involved in the conversation.

1212 5. Don't anticipate yourself! Avoid assuming the opinions and identifications of 1213 other participants.

1214 6. Learning; if you don't understand something, just ask. You may be directed to 1215 a book, website or skill share to learn more. It's ok to make mistakes. Please 1216 show appreciation for the hard work of others and be considerate when you offer 1217 criticism.

1218 7. Everyone has their turn; give each person the time and space to speak. In 1219 large groups, or for groups using facilitation: Raise your hand to speak.

1220 8. Calling out; if you have acted or spoken harmfully, even if unintentionally, 1221 expect that someone will bring this up to you. If this happens, listen and 1222 reflect on what they are saying even if you think they may be wrong. Don't try 1223 to absolve yourself of responsibility.

1224 This policy should be expanded with specific measures and practices to promote 1225 the creation of safer spaces.

1226

1227 The EC, Office and all Prep Teams must organise mandatory reflection/awareness
1228 sessions dedicated to discussing power dynamics in relation to sexual/romantic 1229 relationships within our Federation, being mindful about how they engage with 1230 participants and ethical leadership within FYEG.

1231 1. The EC should hold such a reflection/awareness session at a minimum once a 1232 year preferably at the first live ECM.

1233 2. The Office should hold such a reflection/awareness session at a minimum 1234 once a year.

1235 3. Prep Teams should hold such a session at least once during a Prep Team
1236 meeting before the event they are organizing begins.

Discussions on power dynamics and ethical leadership also are incorporated into the onboarding process for new EC members and Office members.

Permanent Awareness Team

The Permanent Awareness Team consists of one member from the EC and one volunteer that is not a member of the EC. Both members are selected by the EC. This team operates in addition to the event-specific awareness groups and are complementary to those. Members of FYEG should be informed of the existence of this team and know that they can contact them regarding situations that make them feel uncomfortable or if they have concerns about the behaviour of EC Members, Office members, or PT members.

The Permanent Awareness Team should be easily accessible via the website, and there should be a contact form available that allows for anonymous submissions.

The team is responsible for safeguarding the anonymity of any FYEG members who reach out to them.

The Permanent Awareness Team has the authority to make recommendations and propose initiatives in the form of reports to the EC and the General Assembly as needed.

Anti sexual harassment protocol

FYEG has a zero-tolerance policy on sexual harassment at all its events, within all its structures and during all activities. This protocol is applicable for those participating in an FYEG activity (General Assembly, Strategic Planning Committee, Working Group Meeting or any other activity), members of a Member Organization (MO), or members of an online structure of FYEG, referred to as "this organization" from now onwards in this protocol.

Anyone who is subject to sexual harassment can approach one of the designated contact points responsible for receiving complaints of sexual harassment. The Executive Committee will designate an Awareness Group for anyone presenting allegations of physical, verbal or online sexual harassment. In accordance with the IRPs, the Awareness Group will be formed by two persons from the EC who are of different genders. Additionally, every Prep - Team will designate one person to be an independent contact person in our projects. However, this person shall always inform the official contact points if a procedure starts, in the case of 1271 their absence, the main contact will be the Project Manager.

1272 When one of these procedures is open in the organization, the EC as a whole must 1273 be informed of the procedure without details of the people involved or the 1274 presented allegations to respect confidentiality. If a case involves someone 1275 from the EC, the case will be brought to the Advisory Committee (AC). The 1276 Advisory Committee will act as contact points when a case arises, following this 1277 protocol. However, the EC will not be informed until a final decision is made.

1278 Important note:

1279 These procedures will follow general principles such as the privacy of the 1280 survivor, confidentiality of the process and survivor's choice and preference.
1281 We respect the presumption of innocence of any alleged harasser which is why 1282 this procedure is in place and has been approved in the General Assembly.
1283 However, as a feminist organization, we also believe in the principle of 1284 believing the survivor and putting the burden of the proof on the alleged 1285 harasser.

1286 This procedure might be applied to an internal case of a MO if this case is 1287 related to FYEG activity or if the people involved take part in any FYEG
1288 structure. However, we will not be able to extend sanctions or disciplinary 1289 measures beyond FYEG. MOs can however adapt this protocol to their own
1290 organization.

1291 When the designated people receive a complaint of sexual harassment, they shall:

1292 1. Immediately record the dates, times and facts of the incident(s);

1293 2. ascertain the views of the survivor as to what outcome they want, ensure the 1294 survivor feels safe and ensure the survivor is separated from the alleged 1295 offender unless the survivor wishes otherwise;

1296 3. ensure that the survivor and the alleged harasser understands FYEG protocol
1297 for dealing with the complaint;

1298 4. discuss and agree the next steps with the alleged survivor, informal, formal 1299 or outside complaints procedure (police, hospital, embassy, etc.), on the 1300 understanding that choosing to resolve the matter informally does not preclude 1301 the survivor from pursuing a formal complaint if they are not satisfied with the 1302 outcome;

1303 5. keep a confidential record of all discussions. Records will be destroyed if 1304 the alleged survivor requests it, or before the change to a new EC. However, a

1305 record of sanctions and a brief description of the reason will be kept in a safe 1306 place;

1307 6. respect the choice of the survivor;

1308 7. and ensure that the survivor knows that they can lodge the complaint outside 1309 of FYEG through the relevant country/legal framework.

1310 INFORMAL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

1311 If the survivor wishes to deal with the matter informally, the designated person 1312 will:

- 1313 • Approach the alleged harasser saying that the behaviour is offensive, 1314 unwelcome and must be stopped;
- 1315 • Inform the harasser that FYEG has a zero tolerance policy on sexual harassment 1316 and that disregarding this policy may result in the person's exclusion from the 1317 organization
- 1318 • give an opportunity to the alleged harasser to respond to the complaint;
- 1319 • ensure that the alleged harasser understands the complaints mechanism;
- 1320 • facilitate discussion between both parties to achieve an informal resolution 1321 which is acceptable to the complainant, provided the alleged survivor agrees,
- 1322 • ensure that a confidential record is kept of what happened;
- 1323 • follow up after the outcome of the complaints mechanism to ensure that the 1324 behaviour has stopped and that there is no risk of its repetition;
- 1325 • And ensure that the above is done accurately and at the latest within 10 days
1326 of the complaint being made. During events, the procedure shall take place 1327 within 48 hours.

1328 FORMAL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES

1329 If the survivor wants to make a formal complaint or if the informal complaint 1330 mechanism has not led to a satisfactory outcome for the survivor, the formal 1331 complaint mechanism should be used to resolve the matter.

The designated person who initially received the complaint will communicate to the rest of contact points the opening of a formal complaint procedure. The EC will be informed of this, respecting the confidentiality of the alleged survivor and the allegations. The designated person who initially received the complaint will carry out the investigation with the assistance of the Awareness Group and the independent contact person at the moment in which allegations were presented, if any. They will help the investigator with the analysis and decision making process. A procedure for online harassment shall be developed.

The person carrying out the investigation will:

- interview the survivor and the alleged harasser separately
- interview other relevant third parties separately
- decide whether the incident qualifies as sexual harassment within the meaning of this protocol
- produce a report detailing the investigations, findings and any recommendations
- if the harassment took place, decide what the appropriate remedy for the survivor is, in consultation with the survivor (i.e. an apology, a change of structure, suspension...)
- follow up to ensure that the recommendations are implemented, that the behaviour has stopped and that the survivor is satisfied with the outcome
- if it cannot determine that the harassment took place, they may still make recommendations to ensure proper functioning of the organization
- keep a record of all actions taken
- ensure that all records concerning the matter are kept confidential
- ensure that the process is done as quickly as possible and in any event within 15 days of the complaint being made

The general rule is to avoid the presence of the alleged harasser in those places/structures in which the alleged survivor moves. It is vital that the wishes and needs of the survivors are incorporated into the outcome of the complaints mechanism.

1362 A data protection protocol will be developed.

1363 OUTSIDE COMPLAINT MECHANISM

1364 This protocol seeks to create a fast and appropriate response to allegations of 1365 sexual harassment. However, it does not seek to substitute existing regulation 1366 and legislation on this issue. We want to make clear that FYEG wants to be fully 1367 supportive with every decision of the alleged survivor.

1368 A person who has been subject to sexual harassment can at any time make a 1369 complaint outside of the organization. Even though this organization cannot 1370 offer legal advice, the contact point(s) will accompany the person to the 1371 instance this person prefers (hospital, police, ombudsperson, law courts, 1372 embassies, etc.) if they request it.

1373 SANCTIONS AND DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

1374 Anyone who has been found to have sexually harassed another person under the 1375 terms of this policy may be sanctioned. Sanctions may include but are not 1376 limited to one of the following :

- 1377 • Verbal or written warning
- 1378 • Suspension from an elected or non-elected FYEG structure, in line with FYEG
1379 IRPs when appropriate
- 1380 • Dismissal/expulsion

1381 Depending on the seriousness of the allegations, the EC, upon request of the 1382 Awareness Group may suspend someone from taking part in any FYEG structure or 1383 activity during the duration of the process. Confidentiality of the survivor 1384 will be maintained.

1385 In case of sexual harassment, violence or discrimination by a member of an 1386 elected body within FYEG (Financial Control Committee, Advisory Committee or 1387 Ecosprinter Board) the EC can exclude the offender after consulting the full 1388 MOs. (cf. 2.2.2). If the case arises within the EC, the Advisory Committee can 1389 exclude the offender after consulting the full MOs.

1390 The nature of the sanctions will depend on the gravity and extent of the 1391 harassment. Suitable deterrent sanctions will be applied to ensure that 1392 incidents of sexual harassment are not treated as trivial. Certain serious 1393 cases, including physical violence, will result in the immediate dismissal of 1394 the harasser.

1395 Guidelines for persons of contact

1396 Read the protocol and understand every aspect

1397 What is sexual harassment? It is unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature which:

1398     • Violates your dignity

1399     • Makes you feel intimidated, degraded or humiliated

1400     • Creates a hostile or offensive environment

1401 Sexual harassment “can include, but is not limited to”, these examples:

1402     • Touching, pinching, stroking, squeezing, or brushing against someone

1403     • Leering or ogling

1404     • Making LGBTIAQ+-phobic or GSRM (Gender, Sexual and Romantic Minorities)-
1405       phobic comments and sexually suggestive signals, winking

1406     • Sending unwanted e-mails, text messages, posting sexually-explicit jokes
1407       or content on FYEG communication channels

1408     • Sexual comments or jokes

1409     • Making insults based on a person’s sex or rating their sexuality

1410     • Turning work discussions to sexual topics

1411 • Physical behaviour, including unwanted sexual advances, touching and 1412 various forms of sexual assault

1413 • Displaying pictures, photos or drawings of a sexual nature

1414 Remember: Whether harassing intentionally or unintentionally, we all have a 1415 responsibility to monitor our behaviour and respect each other. Anyone who 1416 reports an incident has the right to remain anonymous. They also have the right 1417 to feel safe and respected.

1418 Listen and Support

1419 It's tough to be prepared when someone tells you that they have been the 1420 survivor of sexual harassment. Remember, you can only provide support

1421 Support and understanding are essential. It takes a lot of courage for a 1422 survivor to share their experience;

1423 Try to provide a safe/non-judgmental environment, emotional comfort and support
1424 for the survivor to express feelings;

1425 Let them know that they can talk with you. Listen. Don't rush to provide 1426 solutions.

1427 Believe

1428 The most common reason people choose not to tell anyone about sexual abuse is 1429 the fear that the listener won't believe them. People rarely lie or exaggerate 1430 about abuse; if someone tells you, it's because they trust you and need someone 1431 to talk to.

1432 People rarely make up stories of abuse. It is not necessary for you to decide if 1433 they were "really hurt." If the survivor says they were hurt, that should be 1434 enough

1435 Believe what the person tells you. It may have been difficult for them to talk 1436 to you and trust you. Unless proven wrong harassment has happened.

1437 Reassure

1438 Sexual assault is NEVER the survivor's fault. No one asks to be sexually 1439 assaulted by what they wear, say or do. Let the survivor know that only the 1440 perpetrator is to blame;

1441 The survivor needs to hear that fears, anxieties, guilt and anger are normal,
1442 understandable and acceptable emotions;

1443 Remember, no one ever deserves to be abused or harassed.

1444 Be Patient

1445 Don't press for details – let the person decide how much to tell you. Ask them
1446 how you can help;

1447 Survivors have to struggle with complex decisions and feelings of powerlessness,
1448 trying to make decisions for them may only increase that sense of powerlessness;

1449 You can be supportive by helping them to identify all the available options and 1450 then help them by supporting their decision making process (here refer to the 1451 protocol).

1452 The survivor can't just "forget it" or just move on. Recovery is a long term
1453 process and each individual moves at their own pace

1454 Encourage

1455 Encourage the survivor to seek medical attention, report the assault, and or 1456 contact a professional if needed. Remember, the survivor must ultimately make 1457 the decision as to what to do. They are the experts in their own lives. Don't 1458 push. Remember, support their choices no matter what they decide.

1459 Respect Privacy - Confidentiality

1460 Don't tell others what the survivor tells you. Let the individual decide who 1461 they will tell. It is important not to share information with others who are not 1462 involved;

1463 If you do need to share information for their safety, get permission by letting 1464 them know what you will share and with whom it will be shared; ie. the rest of 1465 contact points in case of a formal complaint

1466 Establish Safety

1467 An important part of helping the survivor is to identify ways in which the 1468 survivor can re-establish their sense of physical and emotional safety. You are 1469 a step in the process. Ask them what would make them feel safe and how you can 1470 help them accomplish this.

1471 If the stalking or harassment is ongoing, help them to develop a plan of what to 1472 do if they are in immediate danger. Having a specific plan and preparing in 1473 advance can be important if the harassment escalates.

1474 Things you can say

1475 It is hard to know what to say to a person when they confide in you. Refrain 1476 from asking a lot of questions, instead, support them with these phrases. Let 1477 the person know that you believe that they have the strength and capacity to 1478 heal.

- 1479 • It's not your fault

- 1480 • I'm sorry this happened

- 1481 • I believe you

- 1482 • How can I help you?

- 1483 • I am glad you told me

- 1484 • I'll support your choices

- 1485 • You're not alone

1486 Use of inclusive language

1487 FYEG aims to use language in its communications and its events that reflects the 1488 level of English spoken within an organisation of mostly non-native speakers.
1489 FYEG promotes the use of inclusive and accessible language within the 1490 organisation. FYEG attempts to reduce the shame of using simple language. We do 1491 this to make sure that everyone feels welcome to participate and contribute.
