R7 A15: Necessity and not luxury: Housing as a cornerstone of social justice

Proposers Óige Ghlas, Young Greens

Motion text

Insert from line 92 to 94:

- utilities need to be available for every individual intended to live in a given accommodation unit. Disabled people should have options for accessible housing. Homes should aim to be built with open air spaces readily accessible to tenants and double aspect construction should

Reason

Lack of accessibility, particularly for those who cannot use stairs, is a problem which deserves mentioning here.
