Agenda item: 6. Ecosprinter Editorial Board Candidates

Application Letter for 'Ecosprinter Editorial Board'

Name: Charlotte Vogt

Dear Young European Greens, dear current editorial board for the Ecosprinter,

My name is Charlotte Vogt. I am hereby happily applying for the volunteer co-position as 'Editorial Board for the Ecosprinter'. I am 22 years old, originally from Germany, and will finish my studies of Cultural Anthropology and Development Sociology at Leiden University (Netherlands) this summer.

After my studies, I hope to participate in an internship or do part-time work, while also wishing to travel and enrich my understanding of our lovely world. This vacature fits wonderfully in the coming flexible time, and allows me to engage with three of my greatest passions: Literary work, art, and current discourse and debate.

One of my biggest joys is holding and fostering debate and discussion on essential contemporary tensions, milestones, and societal shifts. Through my studies in cultural anthropology and development sociology I am familiar with current ecological, socio-economic, and ideological discourse and debate and the importance of localized and grass-root information and resource origin. As such, I aim to reach out to a diverse and perhaps not yet voiced group of contributors in creating the Ecosprinter. Furthermore, indubitably with the remaining primary goal to provide a reliable and holistic collection of current issues, I also hope to include various expressions of and lenses on topical content such as literary, economic, artistic, or advocacy, to reach a wider audience.

Having painted and crafted since my childhood, and passionately appreciating aesthetics and arts, I can bring a fresh and colorful perspective as editor to the magazine, and contribute a devoted eye for detail. To share my love for design and editing, I attached a pdf format of a self-created edition of an imaginary monthly newspaper (although it contains some content of current news, cited through in-text citation, if desired to also put on the website of Fyeg, I can attach a reference list).

Thank you for your time and consideration, I hope to speak to you soon!

With kind greetings,
Charlotte Vogt
