Motion text

From line 36 to 41:

kidnapped by Hamas were liberated; we welcome their liberation and reiterate our call for the immediate and ~~unconditional release of the hostages, and condemn the bad conditions of captivity they endured. Similarly, some Palestinians who Israel arbitrarily detained without charges or fair trials were also freed; we welcome their liberation and reiterate our call for the liberation of the rest of the arbitrarily detained Palestinians, particularly minors.~~ uncondetional releaso of the hostages, and condemn the bad coditions of captivity they endured. 1756 Palestinians, who were unlawfully imprisoned by Israel, were let go. We welcoome their liberation and reiterate our call for the immediate and unconditional release of the rest of the unlawfully imprisoned Paslestinians, particularly minors. We demand Israel to stop unlawfully imprisoning Palestinians. We are also horrified by the conditions Palestinians have to endure in Israeli prisons. There have been documented cases of gang-rape, secual violence, death by torture, maiming, absence and denial of medical treatment, and more. All reported on in detail by B'Tselem in their report "Welcome to Hell". Some of the Israeli hostages kidnapped by Hamas were liberated; we welcome their liberation and reiterate our call for the immediate and unconditional release of the hostages, and condemn the bad conditions of captivity they endured.

Reason

Firstly, we wanted to change the order of this paragraph as to not jump from Palestinians, to Israelis, back to Palestinians. We also find it important to state how many Palestinians were released as to not make it seem that it was only a handfull of persons, as the original text makes it out to be. Furthermore we agree with calling out the conditions in which the Israeli hostages are being kept. However, we miss the same spirit for this injustice when it comes to horrible treatment the unlawfully detained Palestinians, hence we have added it ourselves.
