Reason

We, our mother party (GroenLinks), and even some liberal parties within the Dutch parliament (e.g. D66 and Volt) have named this situation as it is, a genocide. Within Europe, and many other parts of the world, more and more countries/parties are doing/have been doing the same thing. We as FYEG should make the choice to be on the right side of history, and recognising a genocide as a genocide is an important part of this. When the ICJ will rule this a genocide in a decade or so, we will not be able to state "wir haben es nicht gewusst" because we did know.
