Insert after line 113:

- Replace the IHRA definition of anti-semitism with the definition coined by the Jerusalem Declaration of Antisemitism

Reason

Unfortunately, the IRHA definition has enabled politicians, institutions, and organisations to equate any critique directed towards the state of Israel, its government, and their actions to antisemitism. We find it important that the word anti-semitism does not lose its impact, as it is a real and important issue. We would therefore suggest to use the definition coined by the Jerusalem Declaration of Antisemitsm because it makes a clear distinction between antisemitism and critique on Israel.
