Insert from line 70 to 71:

We therefore reject any narrative that frames this genocide as a symmetrical conflict. It is the brutal oppression of a colonized people by a militarized and internationally backed occupying power. The ongoing genocide and occupation cannot be resolved by merely ending overt acts of violence—whether bombings, starvation, or obstruction of aid. A meaningful resolution must address the structural imbalance between Israel as the colonizing power and Palestine as the colonized population.

Reason

Israel and Palestine are not two equal sides in this 'conflict'. The one is a nuclear power while the other is occupied by it. Going about resolving this, without acknowledging this power unbalance, will always fail.
