R2 AM9: Climate Adaptation Is Justice: Care for Europe’s Vulnerable Territories

Proposers DWARS

Motion text

From line 26 to 28:

Addressing this crisis requires a systemic shift towards approaches that overcome this perpetual growth, such as ~~post-growth~~degrowth economy, which understands and prioritises ecological limits, redistribution and collective well-being over

Reason

The term "post-growth", unlike "degrowth", does not stress the need for Europe to significanlty downsize its production and consumption. We also want to specify that we wish for a redistribution of both resources and power.
