R1 AM21: Media freedom and independence under attack

Proposers Executive Committee

Motion text

Insert from line 119 to 121:

- The protection for journalists who work in warzones or critical situations should be strengthened. The EU should prohibit the use of spyware technologies against journalists.The EU Magnitsky Act should be used to sanction states and actors that target journalists. Governments should push for ICC