R1 AM23: Media freedom and independence under attack

Proposers Jeunes écologistes

Motion text

Insert from line 33 to 34:

are primarily conducted by these large media groups, influencing the political climate in the region.Similarly, the French billionaire Vincent Bolloré's media strategy - which involves buying up several new media outlets in the past years and undermining constantly public broadcasting as being "woke" - wages a cultural war on behalf of the far right, showing that billionaire ownership and corporate monopolisation of media outlets threaten democracy and disproportionately silence minority, regional, and dissenting voice.
