Motion text

From line 45 to 48:

the culture of every country, it would be vital to include the histories of ~~native peoples worldwide~~people from various cultural contexts and geographic backgrounds, with a specific focus on precursor civilisations and neglected indigenous groups. Focusing mainly on European history and neglecting ~~native people's way~~the diversity of peoplesways of life leads to harmful and biased thinking. Addressing this requires teaching democratic values and respect for different cultures and

Reason

The word native in most contexts can be understood in a variety of ways. Due to the historical abuse of this term in anthropological discourse historically, we prefer to be specific in our resolutions when talking about a diverse group of people who still face regular oppression.
