Insert after line 109:

- Ensure that children always have the option to choose a technology-free education, if they or their parents wish.

Reason

Increasingly, technology like Computers, IPads, and AI are replacing traditional methods like books and using pen & paper, despite numerous research that highlights the far-reaching pedagogical benefits of the latter. In addition, many children are struggling with basic skills, like handwriting or fine motor skills, which remain important in the age.
