R4 AM6: Protecting International Law Against Empires: to Infinity and Beyond

Proposers Grüne Jugend (Germany)

Motion text

Insert from line 20 to 21:

Russia’s invasion of Ukraine starting in 2014 and intensifying in 2022 represents a blatant act of territorial annexation that violates international law and sovereignty, denying Ukraine’s

Insert after line 38:

In addition, China's growing influence in African states is increasingly showing neo-colonial power relations. Debt-based infrastructure projects, asymmetric trade relations and strategic control over raw materials, ports, energy networks and digital infrastructure create long-term economic and political dependencies. Many of these projects primarily serve China's geopolitical and economic interests, while local value creation, democratic participation and sustainable development often take a back seat. This form of economic expansion reproduces global inequalities and limits the sovereignty of many states with colonial histories by requiring that political decisions are increasingly made under the pressure of financial and strategic dependencies.

From line 76 to 78:

- The EU ~~end all economic and political relations with states that violate human rights. We call on the EU to completely repeal the EU-Israel Association Agreement.~~should establish a review of all countries that violate human rights and end all economic and political relations with states that violate human rights.

From line 116 to 117:

- Statute) and demand the strict regulation of commodity trading hubs to end neocolonial extractivism that exploits ~~the Global South~~countries with colonial histories.
- We call for a consistent end to neo-colonial practices in global power and economic relations. States and corporations must not exert structural influence through debt policies, extractive economic models or asymmetric trade and investment treaties that limit the political and economic self-determination of countries with colonial histories.
